

WHEN WORKERS ARE TREATED UNFAIRLY...

EVERYONE LOSES AT BALLY'S AND CAESARS

The Philadelphia Inquirer

4/15/07

"...wages have been frozen, their health benefits have shrunk, and the casinos are increasingly relying on a growing workforce of part-time dealers, who have no benefits at all."

These days, it's not much fun at Bally's and Caesars in Atlantic City. The CEO is playing the corporate greed game.

- Cutting dealers' hours
- Cutting retirement benefits
- Stripping seniority
- Even breaking the law by refusing to bargain

Yet the CEO of Bally's and Caesars paid himself $39 million last year with plenty of perks.<sup>1</sup>

When Bally's and Caesars play games with casino dealers – it's no fun for anybody.

And everybody loses.
